Reserved Seating and Hospitality Packages

For a more comfortable and premium experience, reserved seating options and hospitality packages are available. These tickets include assigned seats within the grandstands, often providing the best vantage points of the hole. Hospitality packages may also include amenities such as food and beverage service, exclusive access to VIP areas, and additional perks like merchandise or meet-and-greet opportunities with players.

Group and Corporate Tickets

Group and corporate tickets cater to organizations or large parties seeking to enjoy the event together. These packages often combine reserved seating with hospitality services, offering a convenient and upscale way to entertain clients or celebrate special occasions. Secondary Market Considerations

The secondary market, including resale websites and fan-to-fan exchanges, is an option for those seeking sold-out tickets.
