Services Offered by the Humane Society

Beltrami County Humane Society Bemidji MN offers a variety of essential services designed to support both animals and the community. These services ensure that animals receive proper care while promoting awareness and prevention of animal cruelty.

Animal Shelter and Care

The humane society provides temporary shelter for lost, stray, or surrendered pets, offering medical care, nutrition, and socialization to prepare them for adoption. The facility is staffed by trained professionals and volunteers who work diligently to maintain a safe environment for all animals.

Spay and Neuter Programs

One of the key initiatives undertaken by the Beltrami County Humane Society is the spay and neuter program, which helps control the pet population in the community. By offering affordable or free surgeries, the organization reduces unwanted litters and helps prevent animal homelessness.

Animal Control and Rescue

The humane society collaborates with local animal control to respond to cases of animal neglect, abuse, and abandonment. Their rescue efforts include removing animals from unsafe environments and providing rehabilitation services when necessary.

Animal Adoption Process

Adoption is a cornerstone of the Beltrami County Humane Society Bemidji MN's mission, connecting animals with loving, permanent homes. The process is thoughtfully designed to ensure the best matches between pets and adopters.

Steps to Adopt a Pet

The adoption process typically involves several stages to guarantee responsible placement:

1. Visit the Shelter: Prospective adopters can meet available animals at the shelter and learn about their personalities and needs.
2. Application Submission: Interested individuals complete an adoption application providing personal information and experience with pets.
3. Interview and Screening: Staff review applications and conduct interviews to assess suitability and preparedness for pet ownership.
4. Meet and Greet: Arrangements may be made for adopters to spend time with the animal to ensure compatibility.
5. Adoption Agreement and Fees: Once approved, adopters sign an agreement and pay adoption fees that contribute to the care of other animals.
6. Post-Adoption Support: The humane society offers resources and advice to new pet owners to facilitate a smooth transition.

Adoption Requirements and Fees

To adopt from the Beltrami County Humane Society, applicants must meet certain criteria such as age restrictions, residency requirements, and commitment to responsible care. Adoption fees vary depending on the type and age of the animal but typically cover vaccinations, spay/neuter surgeries, and microchipping.
