About Berks Humane Society Reading PA

The Berks Humane Society Reading PA is a nonprofit organization established to rescue, rehabilitate, and rehome animals in need throughout Berks County and the surrounding areas. Founded with the goal of reducing animal homelessness, the society operates a shelter facility that provides a safe haven for stray, abandoned, and surrendered pets. The organization is governed by a board of directors and supported by staff and volunteers who are passionate about animal welfare. Its mission emphasizes humane treatment, responsible pet ownership, and community collaboration to improve the lives of animals. The shelter is equipped with veterinary services, kennels, and adoption centers designed to ensure animals receive comprehensive care during their stay.

Services Offered

The Berks Humane Society Reading PA offers a wide range of services aimed at addressing the needs of animals and their owners. These services go beyond sheltering to include medical care, behavioral assessments, and community resources.

Animal Shelter and Care

The primary service is the sheltering of homeless animals, including dogs, cats, rabbits, and occasional small pets. Animals receive medical examinations, vaccinations, spaying or neutering, and treatment for any illnesses or injuries. The shelter environment is designed to provide comfort and socialization to prepare the animals for successful adoption.

Lost and Found Assistance

Berks Humane Society assists in reuniting lost pets with their owners by maintaining a database of found animals and providing resources for pet identification and recovery. This service helps reduce the number of long-term shelter residents and supports responsible pet ownership.

Pet Licensing and Microchipping

To promote responsible pet ownership, the society offers pet licensing and microchipping services. Microchips serve as permanent identification that can be scanned at veterinary offices or shelters, increasing the chances of lost pets being returned home.

Behavioral Support and Training

Behavioral assessments are conducted to understand each animal's temperament and needs. The society provides resources and referrals for training and behavior modification to help adopters successfully integrate new pets into their homes.

Adoption Process

The adoption program at Berks Humane Society Reading PA is designed to match animals with suitable, loving families. The process ensures that each adoption is a responsible decision and that pets find permanent, caring homes.

Adoption Requirements

Prospective adopters must meet certain criteria such as age restrictions, residency requirements, and the ability to provide adequate care. This helps ensure the safety and well-being of the animals post-adoption.

Adoption Procedure

The adoption procedure typically involves the following steps:

- Visiting the shelter to meet available animals
- Completing an adoption application form
- Interview and consultation with shelter staff
- Home visit or reference checks if required
- Payment of adoption fees, which cover medical and care expenses
- Finalizing paperwork and receiving guidance on pet care

Post-Adoption Support

Berks Humane Society provides ongoing support to adopters, including advice on pet care, training resources, and access to veterinary services if needed. This support helps ensure a successful transition for both the pet and the new owner.

Volunteer Opportunities

Volunteering is a cornerstone of the Berks Humane Society Reading PA's operations. Volunteers contribute significantly to animal care, community outreach, and shelter maintenance.

Types of Volunteer Roles
