According to biblical accounts, primarily in the Book of Exodus, the tabernacle was divinely commanded and served as the dwelling place of God among His people. It was a central site for worship, sacrifice, and covenantal rituals, symbolizing God's presence and guidance.

Origins and Purpose of the Tabernacle

The tabernacle was designed to be a mobile sanctuary, enabling the Israelites to maintain a sacred space while traveling through the desert. It comprised several key components: the outer courtyard, the Holy Place, and the Holy of Holies. Each section held specific religious functions and housed sacred objects such as the Ark of the Covenant, the altar of incense, and the menorah.
