Overview of the Cremation Society of NJ

The Cremation Society of NJ is a non-profit organization committed to offering affordable cremation solutions to residents across New Jersey. Founded with the mission to simplify the cremation process and reduce the financial burden on families, the society emphasizes transparency, respect, and professionalism. It operates statewide, providing services that comply with all state regulations and industry standards. The society is known for its compassionate approach, ensuring that clients receive support and clear information during what can be an emotionally challenging time.

History and Mission

The Cremation Society of NJ was established to address the rising demand for cost-effective cremation options while maintaining dignity and respect for the deceased. Its mission centers on making cremation accessible to all, regardless of financial status, and educating the public about cremation benefits and procedures.

Service Area

The society serves all counties within New Jersey, including major metropolitan areas such as Newark, Jersey City, Paterson, and Trenton. Its expansive network of funeral homes and crematories ensures timely and professional service delivery throughout the state.

Services Provided by the Cremation Society of NJ

The Cremation Society of NJ offers a wide range of services designed to accommodate different preferences and cultural needs. From direct cremation to full-service options, the society provides flexible arrangements that respect individual wishes and family traditions.

Direct Cremation

Direct cremation is the most affordable and straightforward option, involving the cremation of the body without a formal viewing or funeral service beforehand. This service is often chosen by families seeking simplicity and cost savings.

Traditional Funeral Services

For families desiring a conventional funeral, the society coordinates memorial services or viewings. These can include ceremonies at a funeral home, place of worship, or other venues, followed by cremation.

Memorial Services and Celebrations of Life

The society also assists in planning personalized memorial services or celebrations of life, which may take place before or after the cremation. These events honor the deceased's memory in a meaningful and respectful manner.

Additional Services

- Transportation of the deceased

- Preparation of necessary legal documents and permits
- Provision of urns and keepsakes
- Grief support resources for families
