History and Mission of Wicomico County Humane Society

Salisbury MD

The Wicomico County Humane Society Salisbury MD was established to address the growing need for animal welfare services in the local community. The organization has a long-standing commitment to rescuing animals from harmful situations and providing them with shelter, medical care, and ultimately, loving homes. Its mission centers around promoting responsible pet ownership, preventing animal cruelty, and enhancing the human-animal bond within Wicomico County and surrounding areas.

Founding and Development

Since its inception, the humane society has evolved from a small rescue group into a fully operational shelter and community resource. Over the years, it has expanded its facilities and services to accommodate more animals and offer comprehensive care. The staff and volunteers are trained professionals who work tirelessly to ensure each animal's well-being.

Core Values and Objectives

The core values of the Wicomico County Humane Society Salisbury MD include compassion, integrity, and community collaboration. These values guide all operations and initiatives, ensuring that every decision prioritizes the welfare of animals. The objectives include reducing the number of homeless pets, educating the public about animal care, and advocating for animal protection laws.

Animal Services Provided

The Wicomico County Humane Society Salisbury MD offers a wide range of services aimed at improving the lives of animals in need. These services are designed to support both the animals and the community by addressing various aspects of animal welfare.

Rescue and Shelter

One of the primary services is rescuing animals from abusive or neglectful situations. The shelter provides a safe haven where animals receive medical treatment, nourishment, and socialization. The facility is equipped to care for dogs, cats, and sometimes small mammals or other companion animals.

Spay and Neuter Programs

To help control the pet population and reduce shelter overcrowding, the humane society offers spay and neuter services. These programs are often subsidized or offered at low cost to encourage community participation, thereby preventing unwanted litters and contributing to responsible pet ownership.

Community Education and Outreach

Education is a vital component of the humane society's mission. They conduct workshops, school visits, and public events to teach about animal care, safety, and the importance of adopting rather than buying pets. Outreach efforts also include information on recognizing and reporting animal cruelty.

Adoption Process and Available Animals

Adopting a pet from the Wicomico County Humane Society Salisbury MD is a rewarding way to provide a homeless animal with a second chance at life. The organization maintains a transparent and thorough adoption process to ensure the best match between adopter and animal.

Available Animals for Adoption

The shelter regularly has a variety of animals available for adoption, including dogs of different breeds and sizes, cats of all ages, and occasionally other small pets. Each animal is evaluated for temperament and health to assist potential adopters in making informed decisions.

Steps to Adopt

The adoption process typically includes the following steps:

- Visiting the shelter or viewing animals online
