History and Mission

The Will County Humane Society Joliet IL was founded with the mission to protect and improve the lives of animals in the region. Over the years, it has expanded its facilities and programs to address the growing needs of the community, aiming to reduce euthanasia rates and increase successful adoptions. The society's mission emphasizes rescue, shelter, adoption, and education to foster a more humane environment for all animals.

Facility and Location

Located strategically in Joliet, Illinois, the humane society's facility is equipped to handle a variety of animal care needs. The shelter provides safe housing for cats, dogs, and other small animals, offering veterinary services, spay/neuter programs, and behavioral assessments. Its modern infrastructure supports the society's goal of providing quality care and preparing animals for adoption into loving homes.

Animal Services and Programs

The Will County Humane Society Joliet IL offers a broad spectrum of animal services designed to meet the diverse needs of animals and the community. These programs focus on rescue operations, medical treatment, behavioral rehabilitation, and community education to promote responsible pet ownership.

Rescue and Shelter

At the core of the society's efforts is the rescue and shelter program, which provides refuge for lost, abandoned, or abused animals. The shelter staff works diligently to ensure that every animal receives proper medical care, socialization, and a safe environment while awaiting adoption. This program plays a critical role in reducing stray populations and giving animals a second chance at life.

Spay and Neuter Programs

To combat pet overpopulation, the society offers affordable spay and neuter services for pets in the community. These programs help prevent unwanted litters, reduce stray animal populations, and contribute to the overall health of pets. Educational outreach accompanies these services to inform pet owners about the benefits of spaying and neutering.

Community Education and Outreach

Education is a key component of the Will County Humane Society Joliet IL's mission. The organization conducts workshops, school visits, and public events to raise awareness about animal welfare issues, proper pet care, and the importance of adoption. These initiatives aim to foster a compassionate community and encourage responsible pet guardianship.
